ANYWILL, et al.,

Defendants.

Civil Action No.

19-cv-682

(Judge Hornak)

FILED UNDER SEAL

PLAINTIFFS' EXPEDITED INTERROGATORIES

AND NOW come Plaintiffs, by and through their attorneys, and serve the following Expedited Interrogatories on each Defendant in this action. In accordance with the Court Order dated June 17, 2019 ("TRO"), your responses are due no later than fourteen (14) days after these Interrogatories are served on you.

DEFINITIONS

1. Where a defined term is referenced herein and not defined herein, the defined term should be understood as it is defined in the Complaint, Plaintiffs' Ex Parte Application, and/or the TRO.

2. The terms "Defendant," "you," and "your" refer to the Defendant listed on Amended Schedule A, including all affiliates and subsidiaries, receiving these Interrogatories.

3. The terms "concerning" or "relating to" (or any forms thereof) mean constituting, reflecting, representing, supporting, contradicting, referring to, stating, describing, noting, embodying, containing, mentioning, studying, analyzing, discussing, evaluating, or relevant to. As indicated, the terms necessarily include information which is in opposition to as well as in support of the position(s) and claim(s) of the parties in this civil action.

4. The terms “communication” or “communications” refer to any transmission of information, the information transmitted, and any process by which information is transmitted, and will include written communications, electronic communications, and oral communications.

5. The term “person” refers to natural persons, firms, proprietorships, associations, partnerships, corporations and every other type of organization or entity.

6. The terms “document” or “documents” refer to all written, typed, printed, recorded, filmed or reproduced by any other mechanical process, photographic, or graphic matter of every type and description, however and by whomever prepared, produced, reproduced, disseminated, or made, in any form, whether originals or copies, now or formerly in your possession, custody, or control, including, but not limited to: letters; correspondence; e-mails; memoranda; records; books; minutes of all types of meetings; contracts; subcontracts; agreements; exhibits; attachments; intra-office and inter-office communications; analyses; bulletins; regulations, rules, directives, advisory opinions, manuals, proposals; estimates; recommendations; opinions; messages; instructions; notes; notebooks; measurements; designs; sketches; drawings; blueprints; data sheets; telephone records; tapes; computer stored data; computer disks; diaries; desk calendars; work sheets; reports; facsimiles; records of telephone conversations, meetings and conferences; notes and records of conversations or interviews; invoices; bills; statements; accounts; checks; drafts; notices; computer printouts; computer tapes; photographs; slides;

negatives; motion pictures; video recordings; tape or other voice recordings and transcriptions thereof; data compilations from which information can be obtained, translated, if necessary, by you through detection devices into reasonably usable form; and any other writings or recordings or data compilations from which information can be obtained in your actual or constructive possession, custody, or control, including drafts and multiple versions of documents containing marginalia or other comments or notes not appearing on the original. If any document was, but is no longer, in your possession or subject to your control, identify the document and identify its disposition, including, where applicable, the person who currently has possession and/or control of it.

7. The words “identify” or “identity” mean when used in reference to:
  - (a) a document, to state separately: (i) its type (letter, report, memorandum, etc.); (ii) its date; (iii) its subject matter; (iv) the identity of each author or signer; and (v) its present location and the identity of its custodian;
  - (b) an oral statement, communication, conference or conversation, to state separately: (i) its date and the place where it occurred; (ii) its substance; (iii) the identity of each person(s) participating in the communication or conversation; and (iv) the identity and location of all notes, memoranda or other documents memorializing, referring to or relating to the subject matter of the statement;
  - (c) a natural person or persons, to state separately: (i) the full name of each such person; (ii) his or her present or last known business address, or his or her present or last known residential address; and (iii) the employer of the person at the time to which the request or interrogatory is directed and the person’s title or position at that time; and
  - (d) an organization or entity (other than a natural person), a company, a corporation, a firm, an association, or a partnership, to state separately:
  - (e) the full name and type of organization or entity; (ii) the date and state of organization or incorporation, if a business entity; (iii) the address of each of its principal places of business and headquarters; and

(iv) the nature of the business conducted or services rendered.

8. Respond separately and in writing to each interrogatory.

9. In answering these interrogatories, furnish all information that is known to you, your attorneys, agents, advisers, employees or persons otherwise acting on your behalf. If any of these requests for information cannot be answered in full, answer them to the fullest extent possible, state the reasons for your inability to answer the remainder, and state fully the information, knowledge, or belief you now have concerning the unanswered portions.

10. Each interrogatory shall be construed as referring to information now within the knowledge, possession, custody or control of you or your attorneys, agents, advisers, employees or persons otherwise acting on your behalf, as well as any information, knowledge, data, document, or communication that subsequently is obtained or discovered by you or by your attorneys, agents, advisers, employees or persons otherwise acting on your behalf, that demonstrates that any answer originally provided in response to these requests for information was either incorrect or incomplete. Such supplemental information is to be supplied promptly to the party propounding these interrogatories with a designation as to which request the information is responsive.

11. If you do not answer an interrogatory because you claim the information requested is privileged, as to each such interrogatory, state the privilege claimed, set forth the facts relied upon to support your claim of privilege, and identify each document and/or communication upon which you base your claim of privilege.

5. If any document forms a part of or the entire basis for any answer, identify that document.

6. If any responsive document or portion of a responsive document is withheld from production on a claim of privilege, work-product protection, or other discovery immunity, such document should be identified on a privilege log which states, as to each such document: the name, affiliation, and job title of its author(s); the name, affiliation, and job title of its recipient(s); the name, affiliation, and job title of any copyholder(s); the date of the document; the basis for the claim of privilege, protection or immunity; and the request to which the document is responsive.

7. These interrogatories are ongoing and you are required to file supplemental answers and/or provide additional documents as additional information becomes available.
