Chief Judge Mark R. Hornak

JUDGMENT ORDER AND PERMANENT INJUNCTION

This matter comes before the Court upon Motion by Plaintiffs for entry of a default judgment and permanent injunction against the Defendants identified on Schedule “A” hereto (hereinafter referred to as “Defaulting Defendants”) for Defaulting Defendants’ false designation of origin, passing off, unfair competition, copyright infringement and related state and common law claims arising out of Defaulting Defendants’ infringing use of Plaintiffs’ trade dress, common law trademark, and copyrighted works in their manufacturing, importing, exporting, advertising, marketing, promoting, distributing, displaying offering for sale and/or selling and/or sale of Infringing Products.

The Court, having considered the Plaintiffs’ Motion for Default Judgment and Permanent Injunction, the Declarations of Brian Samuel Malkin in support of thereof, the Certificates of Service of the Summons and Complaint, the Entries of Default by the Clerk of Courts, all other pleadings and papers on file in this Action, and the arguments presented at the Default Judgment Hearing held before the Court on August 11, 2020; and no Defaulting Defendant appearing in person or by counsel after good and sufficient notice of the opportunity to be heard, and upon the request of the Plaintiff that these matters be heard and determined by the Court, it is hereby ORDERED as follows

I. Defaulting Defendants' Liability

Judgment is granted in favor of Plaintiffs on all claims asserted against the Defaulting Defendants as more fully set forth herein.

II. Damage Awards

The Court makes the following findings with respect to the monetary damages that will be awarded to the Plaintiffs. The Court's findings and conclusions were also set forth in detail on the Record at the Default Judgment Hearing scheduled for August 11, 2020. The Court finds and concludes that: (1) the damages set out below serve the compensatory and punitive purpose of the Copyright Act's prohibitions on willful infringement and are necessary and appropriate to fulfill those purposes and (2) the Plaintiffs have sufficiently set forth the factual basis for the disgorgement of profits for unfair competition and an award of statutory damages for copyright infringement requested in their supporting papers. The Court also determines the amount of damages sought by Plaintiffs as disgorgement of profits is reasonable and necessary in light of several considerations, including that: (1) the Defaulting Defendants earned at least $2 million in profit; (2) they targeted a wide audience of consumers by advertising infringing products on online merchants directed to American buyers; (3) the Defaulting Defendants are likely to be using other online merchant websites to sell the infringing products; (4) they willfully engaged in the foregoing conduct, and (5) the amount of damages is consistent with an award of statutory damages under the Lanham Act for willful infringement. The Plaintiffs are awarded damages against each of the following Defaulting Defendants in the following amounts:

(A) an award as set forth below against each of the identified Defaulting Defendants:

- I. The Court finds and concludes that each and every element of equitable relief provided for in this Order is necessary in order to fully and completely implement the prohibitions on conduct of the Defaulting Defendants that infringes upon protected interests of the Plaintiff, to remedy past such infringements, and to fully implement the award of monetary relief under this Order. The Court further finds and concludes that such equitable relief is precisely tailored to meeting those remedial provisions, is limited to the injunctive and other equitable relief reasonably necessary to effect the full compensation of the Plaintiff and to adequately deter infringing conduct by the Defaulting Defendants, is consistent with the public interest and not contrary to the substantial rights of the members of the public and others not so enjoined, and is in all other respects consistent with the remedial authority of the Court under applicable law.
